COMMERCIAL BUILDING VALUATIONS

NO, we will not be able to give you a 100% correct way to always determine with your client the best valuation method for their commercial buildings. What we will do is; review some of the current options, share ideas on how to better assist your client in determining a reasonable building valuation and how knowledge of the Building & Personal Property Coverage Form can assist in getting to a reasonable decision of limits.

CANNABIS FROM A COMMERCIAL LINES PERSPECTIVE

Cannabis is a topic that keeps growing in interest (yes, that poor pun was intended). In our review we will look at some of the often utilized ISO Cannabis Exclusions and how they impact coverage, or the lack thereof.

COVID AND ITS LASTING EFFECTS

This is not a discussion on "long COVID," but it is a discussion of how the COVID-19 Pandemic impacted insurance coverage, insurance agencies and some of the other potential long-lasting effects of COVID on our industry and society.
