RE: Nebraska 2017 Legislative Session, Week ending January 27, 2017

WEEK IN REVIEW

Friday was the 22nd day of the 90-day 2017 Legislative Session.

Last week, the legislature conducted half-day floor debate focused on budget bills and half half-day committee hearings.

To see schedule of committee hearings for the coming week, click here: Committee Hearings.

On Monday, January 30, IAN testified in support of two Insurance Department bills:

LB 231, which would clarify that the Insurance Director can take action against non-resident agents who do not maintain a resident license in good standing in their home state; and LB 241, Which would enact an amendment to the privacy provisions of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLBA) that alleviates some of the burden and redundancy associated with the annual privacy notice requirement, by not requiring that licensees (ie, insurance agents and agencies) provide notice every year as long as they (1) has not changed the privacy policies and practices described in its most recent privacy notice and (2) only provides nonpublic personal information to nonaffiliated third parties in accordance with certain provisions of the GLBA. Click on bill numbers to read bills.

On Tuesday, January 31, IAN testified in support of LB 486, which is also supported by the Nebraska Insurance Department. LB 486 would allow up to 6 CEUs (out of 24 every 2 years in Nebraska) for "active participation in a professional insurance association" - by attending a formal meeting of the association; active service on a board or committee; participation in industry, regulatory, or legislative meetings; or participation in other formal insurance business activities of the association. The bill was introduced by Sen. Kolterman at the request of NAIFA Nebraska (Life Underwriters).
