RE: Nebraska 2017 Legislative Session, Week ending April 6, 2017

WEEK IN REVIEW

Monday is the 62nd day of the 90-day 2017 Legislative Session. As of April 6, of the 667 bills introduced in 2017, 35 have been passed and approved by the Governor. Last week the legislature conducted full day floor debate on priority bills, and consent calendar bills.

LB 137 (Lindstrom), to adopt the Unclaimed Life Insurance benefits Act, introduced on behalf of the Nebraska Insurance Department, was advanced for its second round of debate (Select File), and is scheduled to be considered on April 10. It was designated a priority bill by Speaker Jim Scheer.

IIAN's major initiative this session is LB 553, introduced by Senator John Lowe, to address the problem of independent contractors who do not insure themselves for workers' compensation. Working with Senator Lowe, we have drafted an amendment that addresses concerns raised by insurance industry association representatives, and have met personally with Business & Labor Committee Joni Albrecht about advancing the bill for first-round debate (General File).

Committee Chairman Joni Albrecht has indicated that the committee will not hold an executive session this year on the 16 bills still being considered by that committee, to decide whether or not advance any of them for debate by the full legislature.

On April 4, LB220 (Harr – Adopt the Insured Homeowners Protection Act) was advanced to General File with AM567 (see attached). LB220 is not prioritized.

Banking, Commerce & Insurance Committee Chairman Brett Lindstrom has indicated that the committee may not hold an executive session on the 19 bills remaining in that committee.

IIAN supports LB 486, which was advanced for first-round floor consideration (General File) by the Banking, Commerce & Insurance Committee on March 8. LB 486 would allow up to 6 CEUs (out of 24 every 2 years in Nebraska) for "active participation in a professional insurance association" - by attending a formal meeting of the association; active service on a board or committee; or participation in industry, regulatory, or legislative meetings. LB 486 is not a priority bill, but proponents are working to place it on the consent calendar.

See below for list of 2017 IIAN Bills of Interest.

Here are some of the remaining key dates in the 2017 legislative session:

- March 28 – Full-day floor debate begins.
- April 24 – Budget bills must be on General File.
- May 10 – Budget bills must be passed.
- June 2 – Sine die adjournment.
